

FREE DIA PROGRAMS FOR THE 55+ CROWD

MELODIES AT THE MUSEUM

Join us at the DIA for a series of musical performances—just for senior groups!

All performances start at 1 p.m. and include post-performance to-go refreshments.

THURSDAY, JUNE 26

Ahya Simone: As a harpist, composer and filmmaker, Ayah draws inspiration from her favorite contemporary artists with a mix of R & B, Soul, Jazz and experimental elements.

THURSDAY, JULY 24

Abigail Stauffer and the Wisdom: A blend soulful pop vocals with the rare and distinct sound of jazz cello. Their songs turn the language of acoustic, pop, and neo-soul music into an irresistible invitation to heal and be healed.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 21

Sunrise: Silent film with live musical score. A 1927 American romantic drama directed by German director F. W. Murnau.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Dave Bennett: A talented clarinet player who blends classic jazz from the Swing Era with influences from rock, pop, and rockabilly, creating a sound that's both nostalgic and refreshingly modern.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23

Nosferatu: Silent film with live musical score by the Detroit Bureau of Sound. A 1922 German Expressionist vampire film adapted from Bram Stoker's Dracula novel.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Gnote~7: An energetic soulful band with expertise in many genres including funk, jazz, blues and old-school R & B. This performance is a tribute to the Motown sound of the 1960s and 1970s including Smokey Robinson, Marvin Gaye, The Temptations, The Jackson Five and others.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 18

Marion Hayden and Alvin Waddles Holiday Concert: Featuring the talents of Alvin Waddles (piano), Marion Hayden (bass), Leslie Deshazor (violin/viola) and Djallo Kieta (drums).
